25X1

- On 31 August 1950 the landing field of the Barth (N 55/P 25) airfield was being used for grazing. There were no indications that the field was occupied. The E-W concrete runway was intact but grass was growing between the concrete slabs. The hangars had been demolished and the barracks buildings destroyed.*

25X1 Comment. The information that the field is not being used by Soviet 25X1
 25X1 Air Force troops was reported in July 1950.
 25X1 The status of the field has not changed since December 1949.
 25X1 There were no indications of an intended reconditioning of the badly kept landing field or reconstruction of the hangars and buildings.
